National Translation Mission:

- ✚ The National Translation Mission (NTM) is a scheme launched in 2008 which is being implemented through the Central Institute of Indian Languages (CIIL), Mysore to establish translation as an industry in general and to facilitate higher education by making knowledge texts accessible to students and academics in Indian languages.
- ✚ Under the scheme, the books of knowledge texts mostly text books of various subjects prescribed in Universities and Colleges are being translated in all Languages of the 8th Schedule of the Constitution of India. National Translation Mission has so far published 40 Knowledge Text translations in 16 languages (Assamese, Bengali, Bodo, Dogri, Hindi, Kannada, Maithili, Malayalam, Manipuri, Marathi, Nepali, Odia, Punjabi, Tamil, Telugu and Urdu).
- ✚ NTM has published 6 bilingual dictionaries (English to Indian languages) in collaboration with Pearson Education, India.
- ✚ The Mission has trained about 1400 budding translators through 3-week intensive courses (21 days) on 'Introduction to translation' and 'Research Methodology in Translation'
