

GS-III Conservation, Environmental Pollution and Degradation, Environmental Impact Assessment

- 1. Climate Change's ill-effects are visible across the Country. A people's Movement is needed to make combating Toxic Air a Top Priority. Comment.

Why this Question?

- Increasing impact of the Climate Change across the country.

Key Demands of Question:

- Briefly explain the Climate change and its ill-effects.
- Explain how air pollution can be making a top priority by way of the people's movement.
- Explain the way forward measures to tackle the implications of the climate change.

Directive Word:

Comment:

- When you are asked to comment, you have to pick main points and give your 'opinion' on them based on evidences or arguments stemming from your wide reading.
- Your opinion may be for or against, but you must back your argument with evidences.
- These types of question offer you a chance to consolidate your reading of different subjects to justify your opinion.

Structure of Answer:

Introduction:

- Give the definition of the climate change and mention some of the current issues regarding the climate change.

Body:

- Discuss the ill-effects of the climate change that is visible across the country. For example, air pollution, erratic rainfall, etc.
- Explain the current intervention taken by the government is insufficient to address the climate change.
- Explain how air pollution can be making a top priority by way of the people's movement.
- Highlight the government actions regarding the climate change.

Conclusion:

- Conclude with the seriousness of the issues and necessary to address the same to reduce the seriousness and India's commitment towards the Global Paris Agreement.